Dear Sir/Madam,

Please find enclosed the latest Activ Library information brochures. We would appreciate if these could be displayed or made available as appropriate to parents and staff. If you require additional brochures please contact us on 9387 0458 or email library@activ.asn.au. Likewise, if you no longer wish to receive these - we will mail out annually - please let us know.

Activ Library is a major information resource on disability in Western Australia and has a vast collection of books, journals, training materials, selected websites and audiovisual resources. To access the library catalogue, view further information or search our journal articles, visit www.activ.asn.au/library.

Activ Library's Parent Portal is a web-based information service providing a useful starting point for parents and carers needing current information about intellectual disability and autism and can be accessed at www.activ.asn.au/parentportal.

Kind regards
